THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) According to the "Corruption Perception Index, 2006" published by the Transparency International, India is ranked at 70th place out of a total of 163 countries.

(b) The Government has not undertaken any surveyor study in this regard and therefore, can not subscribe to this findings.

(c) The Government is fully committed to implement its policy of "Zero Tolerance" on corruption and is moving progressively to eradicate corruption from all spheres of life. Several steps have been initiated to remove corruption and to improve functioning of Government. Important among these steps are:-

(a) Enactment of the Central Vigilance Commission Act, 2003;

(b) Whistle Blowers Resolution, 2004;

(c) Enactment of Right to Information Act, 2005;

(d) The pro-active involvement of Ministry/Department through Annual Action Plan on Vigilance;

(e) Issue of comprehensive instructions on transparency in tendering and contracting processes by the CVC.

Government organizations are also constantly engaged in improving their functioning through e-Governance, issue of Citizen Charters and simplification of procedures and systems, which are aimed at eradicating corruption by improving transparency and accountability.

Public servants indulging in corruption

1297. SHRIMATI MOHSINA KIDWAI:
SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that during 2006, CBI booked 1917 public servants from different Government agencies for allegedly indulging in corruption;

(b) if so, the number of such cases that were booked in the years 2004 and 2005;

(c) the number of cases that are pending primarily due to unavailability of prosecution sanction, year-wise; and

(d) the number of months that Government take to grant sanction in each case?
